KINGADE
BABY

A wooden signpost is set in a grassy field. The sign is a horizontal wooden plank with rounded ends, mounted on a vertical wooden post. The text "CLARK KINCADE" is painted in dark blue, bold, sans-serif capital letters. The sign is positioned in the lower center of the frame. The background consists of a field of green grass and weeds, with a small, weathered wooden stump visible in the upper left. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day, and the overall scene is outdoors.

A dark grey granite headstone is set into the ground, surrounded by green grass and weeds. On top of the stone, there is a bouquet of flowers including a large white rose, several yellow daisies, and a single red rose. The stone is inscribed with the name 'FATHER CHARLES P.' and the years '1902' and '1986' separated by a horizontal line. The scene is partially in shadow, suggesting it is under a tree.

A photograph of a dark grey granite gravestone for Annie E. The stone is rectangular with a double-line border. It is set in a grassy area with some weeds. Above the stone, there are several flowers: a cluster of pink roses on the left, a small blue flower in the center, and a cluster of pink and white flowers on the right. The stone is slightly tilted to the right.
